

The Christian Writers'™ Market Guide has long been considered an indispensable resource for Christian writers. The only guide written exclusively for this specialized market, it provides the most up-to-date marketing resource information available to beginning and advanced writers, full-time freelancers, agents, editors, publishers, publicists, and all others interested in, or involved with, Christian writing. The 2003 edition of this guide includes more than 1,200 potential markets (along with all the information needed to contact them), and tells writers exactly what publishers are interested in what topics or types of books, articles, or stories. In addition to the market listings, The Christian Writers'™ Market Guide 2003 is filled with unlimited resources to make the writer's™ life easier and more focused: lists of greeting card/specialty markets; agents; writers'™ conferences and groups; editorial services; contests; market analysis (book publishers and periodicals); a listing of publishers and publications by denomination or corporate group; publishers'™ e-mail and Web sites; and a wide range of resources for writers'™ many available online. This guide has become™ and will continue to be™ a familiar friend to all those involved in the creation, development, publishing, and promotion of Christian writing.
