Souls are timeless. You have one soul. Thats all you are and all you ever will be. You shouldnt let the world interfere with it. Your senses are as much your soul as your soul is your senses. Keep alive that gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. For the Spirit that God has given us does not make us timid; instead his Spirit fills us with power, love and self-control. II Timothy 1:6-7 That which is boundless in you is what you should strive to live for. Reach to exceed your grasp. Do it because its inside of you. Your soul is the essence. Hold onto those idealistic visions that sometimes pop out of your mind. Thats your soul or God talking to you. For truly enlightened, free people, its all that really matters, to aspire to live like these visions tell you to. Finding your soul is generally the process of going through many experiences and incarnations from the world until you find yourself although a few people know themselves right from the start. Everybody has within them a strong, safe, beautiful, easygoing haven where no one can enter unless invited, where all is perfect, where its the pure you affected by none, an insular Tahiti of sorts, an inner sanctuary like a beautiful, calm tropical island in the midst of a turbulent ocean which is the outside world. This is your soul, that one pure part of you that no one can ever get to if you dont let them and the one part of you that can keep you strong and stable regardless of the circumstances surrounding you as long as you keep focussing on its beauty and strength. Your soul is a perfect tropical island within yourself, your version of Eden where you can feel your highest vision of esthetic beauty, love, truth, peace and perfection and see it with your minds eye. As long as you stay close to this vision in your thoughts, in spirit and in your actions, youll live a great life. Your pure soul is the essence you were born with but it fades away if you dont live your life true to it as you go along. The modern capitalist world is not geared for people to live by their souls because it packages them down into level of formal education, job categories, consumer demographic group, material status, etc. yet the key to life is to live by the flow in your soul. Your soul is your pillar of strength, your Rock of Gibraltar, your protector, your insulation from the world and source of power to the world. You go there to get power when youre up and inspiration, hope and comfort when youre down and out. The closer you are to this place called your soul, the more powerful and happy youll be. The further away you get due to the general loss of self to all the distractions and impostors of the world plus the more run down you get due to the general stress of life in the so-called real world, the more sad, undone and detached from your soul youll be. Soul is the unfulfilled yearnings within you that force you to go beyond normal life to reach for something deeper that lives inside of you. Its becoming the spiritual-esthetic visions you have about yourself. Its an all out assault to be who you feel you were born to be. Thats what living by soul is, nothing less. Its hunting for the divine within yourself and expressing it fully to develop yourself like the mustard seed which becomes a great tree or the caterpillar which becomes a beautiful butterfly. Your pure soul is you when you were an innocent child. Your essence hasnt changed at all, it was just c
