

The School of Intonation on an Harmonic Basis for Violin is probably one of the foremost references for intonation for the violin created. Sevcik is well-known as a violinist and a teacher, performing and teaching across the globe. This Method in XIV parts has now been reprinted from the original Harms plates dated 1922. Cleaned, straightened, and generally made easier to read, the Edition Fleury reprint here makes using this method even easier. This method is being published three different ways: (1) In XVII separate parts, (2) In Four volumes, and (3) In one gigantic book. Make sure you choose which you want. All volumes should be on Amazon. Glossy covers, extra pages for notes, and extra blank staff paper included. Printed in English, German, and French. 8.5x11. Parts are as follows: I.
