

Michael was a shy, tall awkward boy in high school. When he fell for Taylor he kept his feelings for her a secret. They became the closest of friends, sharing every detail about their lives, except one. When Taylor began dating the star quarterback, Chris, her life took an abusive turn. Although she confided nearly everything to Michael, the abuse she suffered at Chris's hands was a topic she refused to discuss. Michael was forced to watch the most beautiful girl he had ever met withdraw into herself and become a shell of a person. After one night of ecstasy, Michael had left Taylor to enlist in the Marine's. Little did either of them know that she had conceived a child that night, a child that would put all three of them on a collision course with destiny. Michael befriended Chris in college, calling himself David. Together they built a very profitable business of training love slaves. When David had brought Taylor to the Arizona ranch, his quest to help her remember began. His quest to protect her and their child also began. Chris wanted Taylor to admit the child was his and give him access to her. Chris set out to get that information using any means necessary. The explosive conclusion to The Taylor Saga ends here. But does it?
