

This story is inspired by the story of the Good Samaritan found in Luke 10. It is not meant to replace the story found in the Bible but to show it in a new light. The parable can be read side by side and compared with this story as a lesson. It is basically is an answer to the question: what if the good Samaritan was placed in modern day times, or in the future? Discussion questions and activities are included in this book to provide a richer experience with the story and to form a connection point between Luke 10 and The Good Samaritan in the Hood. I hope parents, teachers and children enjoy this story alike and fall in love with Jesus through it again or for the first time.
