What will you perswademe to defer it to thatTime, when we should Reap? Will Tradesmen, or others, neglect their Markets and Fairs, and ffy, They may provide themselves with such and such Commodities at any time; and yet cannot cell whether or no they may ever have the like Advantages and Opportunities, to store themselves with such things as they need? Sir How many Thousands hath this Murderer deceived by the specious Pretence and Promises of Long Life, and Late Repentance? Nay, How many Thousands hath he thrown into Hell, who lie burning in unquenchable Fire, by this Device? If I neglect this Time, I know not whether, (may ever have another. Shall I be led away by a cursed Tray tor, and flie in my Sovereigns Face, with Hopes hell pardon me hereafter, when he hath made me no such Promii, bur contrariwise, declares pofitively, if I dcisiÂ»Â»l shall die, and derifh eternally;?...ymaft FMrfrl. Yonll lose, I will assure fooy, Friends Favour, as well as Ours, Vvho been your (weet Companions. %U ?ratttsf of Â©ngoblim&J. fe; Convert. Its better to please God than Man. If 1 lose my earthly Friends, I shall hive heavenly Ones. God is the best Friend, Sir. Is it not better to have the Love of the Prince than she Love of his Page? Friend, I had rather a Thousand Times lose your Favour, than the Favour of God and Christ., The Company seeing they could not prevail with him to return, abused him fearsully, calling him at their Pleasure: But oaeof the Youths observing that the Convert had clearly worsted them, was mightily wrought upon, and he was refovd to leave them too: Which made A folly on grind his Teeth, and foa...
