

The True Face Of Domestic Violence honestly faces the reality of DV in its familial context, boldly proposes to eliminate DV from the family, and thoroughly exposes the actual connection between power and DV. While establishing the clinical standards for DV education, support, therapy, and research, The True Face Of Domestic Violence heartily encourages every DV family member and every DV worker to constantly strive for the DV solution that brings life to whole families. Before and after retiring from the United States Air Force, Ron Fandrick preached in Missouri, Illinois, and Washington. Afterwards, he helped individuals and families as a clinical marriage and family therapist. Then, specializing in the domestic violence, he designed, directed, and supervised therapy programs for men, women, and children.
